

SELECTA GROUP HAS SOLD SELECTA FINLAND TO JOBmeal

Cham, Switzerland, March 15, 2018. Selecta AG (“Selecta”), a European leader in unattended self-serve coffee and convenience food, today announced that it has sold Selecta Finland to JOBmeal. Selecta Finland employs about 95 people and generated net sales of approximately €13.7 million in the business year 2016/17. The sale has been subject to approval from the European Commission (EC). Selecta will continue to operate in Finland through its Pelican Rouge entity in Finland (<http://www.pelicanrouge.com/fi>).

The financial conditions of the transaction have not been disclosed.

###

Media Contact Selecta Group

Kerstin Müller
Corporate Communication Manager
Mobile: +41 79 331 48 30
Email: kerstin.mueller@selecta.com

About Selecta Group

Headquartered in Switzerland since 1957, the Selecta group is a leading unattended self-service coffee and convenience food provider in Europe, currently operating in 16 European countries. An annual combined turnover of more than 1 billion euros is a testament to the passion and dedication of more than 8000 highly skilled employees, providing great quality coffee brands and convenient food and beverages concepts for the workplace, on-the-go as well as hotels, restaurants and cafes. For further information, please visit www.selecta.com.

About JOBmeal

Headquartered in Solna outside of Stockholm, JOBmeal is a leading provider of office coffee services in Sweden with a nation-wide presence through 25 local offices. By being close to the customers and through an entrepreneurial culture, JOBmeal is strongly committed to delivering a great coffee experience to the users of its coffee solutions. JOBmeal has an annual turnover of around 50 million€ and circa 250 employees. For further information, please visit www.jobmeal.se.